Directions: Type these questions and answers. Put this at the end of your portfolio.

1. What were your expectations when you first started to work on the paper, on the product and with your mentor? Did your experiences meet those expectations? How did they differ?
My expectations when I first started to work on the product was that it was going to be so hard but thank god it wasn't as bad as i initially expected. My product on the other hand I had problems figuring out what to do which threw me off cause i was expecting it to be pretty easy. For my mentor I thought i would be able to find a mentor pretty quick and easily but it actually was pretty difficult.
2. What problems did you encounter while researching and writing the paper? What was your greatest resource in overcoming these obstacles?
Some problems I encountered while researching and writing the paper was finding the correct research materials on my topic, that didn't stray from it. My greatest resource in overcoming these obstacles were to take the fine details that were on topic and build on it.
3. What was the most interesting or surprising information you learned in your research?
The most interesting or surprising informations that I learned throughout the rest of my life is the information i found out about black seeds and the amount of diseases and problem they can prevent.
